Hope For Wholeness Referral Ministry

He rescued me because He delighted in me. Ps 18:19b

THIS MONTH'S MEDITATION SCRIPTURE: The steadfast love of the Lord never ceases; His mercies never come to an end; they are new every morning; great is Your faithfulness. Lam 3:22,23

The Mercy of the Lord

We often hear a lot about God's grace, but not many seem to talk about His mercy. I don't know about you, but I find myself constantly in need of His mercy. As I have grown older in the Lord, I have become more and more aware of my sinful self. I used to think that the older I'd get, the less I'd have to deal with my sin nature, therefore the less I'd have need of His mercy. Maybe it's just me, but that hasn't been the case at all.

In the Old Testament, it appears that mercy is most often translated 'lovingkindness'. In the New Testament, most often it is 'compassion.' Either way, to me it is a much-prized benefit for those who are Jesus-followers.

In the Bible, as noted in this month's meditation passage, His mercies are new every morning. 1 Kings 8:23 tells us that His mercy toward us is connected to His covenant with those who follow Him with all of their hearts. Psalm 100:5 says His mercy is everlasting. Micah 6:8 reads, "He has told you, O man, what is good; and what does the Lord require of you but to do justice, love mercy and to walk humbly with your God?" Ephesians 2:4 says God is rich in mercy, and 1 Peter 1:3 tells us God the Father's great mercy has caused us to be born again through the resurrection of Jesus to obtain an imperishable inheritance. And these are just a few of a multitude of references in Scripture about how wonderful God's mercy is toward us.

I am thankful that the Lord's lovingkindness and compassion are toward me, but I am most grateful that those mercies are everlasting, as I'm pretty sure I'll need them right into eternity.

Responses From You

From an IN ministry supporter: Thank you Daniel, for this important & useful info.

From a Christian brother: Thanks for your newsletter. I can relate to the story about porn watching as it is something that I did on and off for many years. Presently (as Paul said) I have not yet achieved it, but I focus on this one thing: forgetting what is past and looking forward to what lies press on to reach the end of the race and to receive the heavenly price for which God, through Christ Jesus, is calling me.

From a fellow-struggler: Thank you for your posts. It is a challenge for me not to become like the world when I am longing for love and acceptance from it.
