THIS MONTH'S MEDITATION SCRIPTURE: *For all things are for your sakes, that the grace which is spreading to more and more people may cause the giving of thanks to abound to the glory of God. Therefore we do not lose heart, but though our outer man is decaying, yet our inner man is being renewed day by day. 2 Cor 4:15,16

Thank You For...

On this Sunday before Thanksgiving, our congregation took the entire time of our service for some individual members to share things the Holy Spirit laid on their hearts that they have experienced this year for which they are grateful. Their sharing was interspersed with songs and hymns of thanksgiving to the Lord. For me, it was one of the most powerful services we've had. It was mostly the congregation members who were ministering to the rest of our local body. Though we are small in number, we have been privileged to see God use our members in mighty and powerful ways in each other's lives within our congregation, in our city, and throughout the world. We are thankful for the work He has done in us, with us, and through us.

I am thankful to the Lord to be part of a body of believers which holds dear the importance of: the Kingdom of God, the power of effective outreach, personal and corporate destiny, multigenerational relationships, knowing and being known by God and one another, prayer being the foundation of everything, bearing fruit, believing every believer is significant, and seeing that all of life is about worshiping and serving the Lord.

Over the 30+ years my family has been part of this congregation, we have learned, and continue to learn, the value of loving the world the way our heavenly Father loves the world; that worship is a way of life, not a Sunday morning event; that learning to trust the Lord is an ongoing work in our individual and corporate lives; that we are to grow up and go out in the Holy Spirit, not being ashamed of the Gospel of Jesus Christ; and most importantly, that the Covenant of Jesus Christ is the fulfillment of all of God's covenants with His people in the Scriptures.

Below are the words to one of the songs we sang today that sums up my thankfulness to the Lord. It was written by my pastor Ted Sandquist about 25 years ago, and it is called "Thank You For".

Thank You for the Son that You have given, Thank You for the image of Your face.
Thank You for the covenant of heaven, Thank You for Your mercy and Your grace.
For the way that has been opened, for the truth that sets us free.
For the life that would be broken on the cross of Calvary, on the cross of Calvary.

Thank You for the pardon You have given, Thank You for the ransom You have paid.
Thank You for the sins You have forgiven, Thank You for your love in our disgrace.
For the prisons You have opened, For the captives who've been freed,
For the healing of the broken, for the blinded eyes that see, and their songs of victory.

Hosannah in the highest. Holy, Holy, and Amen. Glory, glory Hallelujah!
Blessed be the Son of Man, Son of God and Son of Man.

Thank You for the One who is now risen, Thank You for the power of His name.
Thank You for the Spirit of Your presence. Thank You for Your life-giving reign.
For the Word that has been spoken, which has not been sown in vain,
But shall flourish in its season and bear fruit from latter rains, and bear fruit from latter rains.

Thank You for that which can't be shaken. Thank You for what shall never change.
Thank You for the kingdom of heaven. Thank You for the fruit that shall remain.
For the chosen generations, for the shed blood of the Lamb,
For the healing of the nations and the new Jerusalem, dwelling of The Great I Am.

Hallelujah to the Father! Hosanna to the Son! Holy, Holy, Holy Spirit,
May Your blessed kingdom come, and Your will on earth be done.
May Your blessed kingdom come, and Your will on earth be done.

Responses From You

From a pastor in the northeast: Be Blessed my brother, the passage in Luke also tells us that seeking to look right before mankind but not inwardly being right is also an Abomination. So, in the faith when we do not walk out in the inner man our outward reality as good Christians, we also can be an abomination to God. This concept is a scary reality, how many look good but are dead already? BTW I love this article. Blessings

From a brother in AZ: Thank you, Daniel, I love how you laid all this out for us.

From a CO brother: So true for the season I'm in right now.

From a new believer in UT: Love this, Daniel. It's nice to know I'm not the abomination, but the judgement misinterpretation. It is indeed hard for some in the church today to separate the issue. My own brother expressed his own predicament in this matter. Thank you, Daniel, and Amen! Praise God!

And from the Sooner State: Love this!

Please give prayerful consideration to including Abba's Delight in your end of year tax-deductible donations. There is so much more work that needs to be done in bringing freedom to those with unwanted LGBTQ issues in their lives. A return ministry trip to Australia in 2023 is being worked on as well. If you feel so led, your support is much appreciated. Thank you for your consideration.

If you do not wish to receive the Abba's Delight Ministry Newsletter any longer, please let me know. If you do wish to continue to receive it, please be certain to put our email address in your address book, so that this mailing does not go to your spam, and report to your carrier. Thank you.
