He rescued me because He delighted in me. Ps 18:19b

THIS MONTH'S MEDITATION SCRIPTURE: Therefore remember, that formerly you, the Gentiles in the flesh, who are called "Uncircumcision by the so-called Circumcision," which is performed in the flesh by human hands—remember that you were at that time separate from Christ, excluded from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers to the covenants of promise, having no hope and without God in the world. But now in Christ Jesus you who formerly were far off have been brought near by the blood of Christ. Eph 2:11-13

In Christ Alone

Yesterday was Good Friday, the day when Jesus surrendered His body to be crucified on a cross, giving Himself to die as the supreme and final sacrifice for the sins of mankind. Tomorrow, with the rest of the Body of Christ across the world, we will observe Resurrection Sunday, celebrating the body of Jesus being raised from the dead to life again, conquering sin and death once and for all; satisfying the Father's sacrificial requirement for atonement, reconciling mankind to Himself.

These two events represent God the Father's free gift of eternal life with Him to mankind, demonstrating His gracious and compassionate love for us. For us to benefit from this indescribable gift, we must accept and receive His Son Jesus as the one and only Savior of the world as written in Acts 4:12, stating, "And there is salvation in no one else; for there is no other name under heaven that has been given among men, by which we must be saved." Also, John 1:12,13 tell us that, "But as many as received Him (Jesus), to them He gave the right (power) to become children of God, even to those who believe in His name, who were born not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God." In doing so, we are adopted into His spiritual family as sons and daughters of God. And according to Galatians 3:26, this exercise of faith positions us in Christ.

There are innumerable blessings and benefits of being in Christ, but the most significant is that we have been saved from damnation and eternal separation from God. I am forever grateful that I was able to hear Him call my name at a young age, to begin the journey following Him and His plan for me, discovering all that He has in my destiny in Christ. Our Resurrection Day observance tomorrow is certainly cause to rejoice and celebrate life in Christ.

Facebook post responses:

* Yes, this is the truth & he can and has delivered me & the SSA attractions are almost completely gone as my relationship w/Christ, learning my identity & worth is in him and experiencing the love of my heavenly father has healed so much of the trauma! His word is life & our daily bread... his Holy Spirit is powerful & capable of transforming even the hardest of hearts if surrendered! Congratulations on your re-birth Anniversary!

* Amen...such a good and hopeful word. I believe this for and declare this for my son and all our children. Lord help us establish your kingdom here on earth.

From a pastor and friend: Happy Birthday, Daniel! I would say "Many More!" but because of your New Birth, that's an absolute given! Rooting for You & Yours,
