He rescued me because He delighted in me. Ps 18:19b

THIS MONTH'S MEDITATION SCRIPTURE: *The Spirit of the Lord God is upon me, because the Lord anointed me to bring good news to the humble; He has sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim release to captives and freedom to prisoners; to proclaim the favorable year of the Lord and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all who mourn, to grant those who mourn in Zion, giving them a garland instead of ashes, the oil of gladness instead of mourning, the mantle of praise instead of a spirit of fainting. So they will be called oaks of righteousness, the planting of the Lord, that He may be glorified. Is 61:1-3

Jesus' Divine Assignment

from the Archives December 2021

These Isaiah 61 verses are not your typical Christmas Scripture. Yet they boldly declare Father's intention and heart for His people. All throughout history, the Messiah's coming was foretold by prophetic voices whom God raised and anointed. Israel watched and longed for His arrival, looking for their Savior, looking for their deliverance.

God the Father provided His only begotten Son, Jesus, as the sacrifice for our sins, and the sins of every human ever born. Jesus is our Messiah! And in Father's boundless wisdom He sent Jesus to earth just as we come to earth, born of the flesh as a baby; though Jesus' conception was not anything like ours. He was divinely conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit.

He willingly obeyed His Father, leaving His place in heaven, taking on the form of man, and surrendering His own will to God's. He lived on earth, submitted to Joseph and Mary, his earthly parents, being trained in obedience and hearing His Father's voice. Proving His endless love for mankind, He willingly gave up His life for us, trusting the Spirit to raise Him from death to life, securing our place with Him eternally. And in doing so, He has fulfilled every prophetic word foretold about the Messiah's coming.

May our hearts rejoice and be glad as we celebrate His birth, all that He has done, and all that He is yet to do!
