NEWSLETTER—June 2026

THIS MONTH'S MEDITATION SCRIPTURE: ...that in reference to your former life, you lay aside the old self, which is being corrupted in accordance with the lusts of deceit, and that you be renewed in the spirit of your mind, and put on the new self, which in the likeness of God has been created in righteousness and holiness of the truth. Eph 4:22-24

How Will Church Leaders Respond to LGBTQ Support Declining in the USA?

According to a Gallup Poll released June 3, 2026, support for LGBTQ issues in the USA has dropped after 20 years of consistent growth. The Gallup website reveals that support for legalized same-sex marriage is down six points to 65% from its high just three to four years ago; at 62% seeing gay/lesbian relations as moral is at its lowest in 10 years; the perceived morality of transitioning one's gender is down eight points since 2021 to 38%.

One interesting statistical result in the polling showed that Republicans are the ones that reflect the most recent changes in their position on legalized same-sex marriage, dropping from 55% in '21/'22 to 37% in this new poll. Democratic support has remained at 87% since 2022, and those who register as Independents are at 67% supporting, a drop of six points.

But what does this say about the individual believer and the Church at large? I choose to see the decline in support of all things LGBTQ as a possible return to Biblical truth, as answered prayer, and even successful evangelical efforts of believers to share the gospel with those in the LGBTQ community. I would like to attribute it to widespread Church leadership across denominations finally coming around to addressing LGBTQ issues in a redemptive way from the pulpit. Unfortunately, that is largely not the case.

It is my understanding that seminaries still do not provide for their students any consistent training opportunities through testimonies of those who have left LGBTQ lives to follow Jesus; or extended invitations to ministries, which work with those leaving LGBTQ or who have unwanted LGBTQ issues, to present workshops or seminars. Learning about how same-sex attractions originate or how to minister to someone who is LGBTQ-identified would go a long way towards preparing pastors to serve those in their care.

With the occasional exception here and there, Church leadership continuing to ignore this specific area of God's redemptive power in their congregations is not serving the Body of Christ as God intended, in my opinion. The time for shepherds of our flocks for burying their heads in the sand must no longer be the norm.

Responses From You

From a former ministry participant: Thanks for sending this...I have been praying for you this month specifically. I'm glad to hear your treatments are working!

From a pastor in SC: Good word, Daniel. We are praying for you for health and strength, and continued grace and boldness in this important work God has called and commissioned you to do.

From one of my best buddies: Got it, thanks! As usual Daniel, your ministry speaks clearly and I pray it reaches the ears that need to be freed by the Holy Spirit.

From another brother in Christ: Thank you for your obedience within this ministry. I particularly loved mentioning how important identity is for the believer. Fortunately, I have a lot of friends who are in recovery with AA but unfortunately, it drives me crazy that they choose to believe they are alcoholics instead of redeemed children of God that might still struggle.
