He rescued me because He delighted in me. Ps 18:19b

THIS MONTH'S MEDITATION SCRIPTURE: Paul, an apostle (not sent from men, nor through the agency of man, but through Jesus Christ, and God the Father, who raised Him from the dead), and all the brethren who are with me, to the churches of Galatia: Grace to you and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ, who gave Himself for our sins, that He might deliver us out of this present evil age, according to the will of our God and Father, to whom be the glory forevermore. Amen. I am amazed that you are so quickly deserting Him who called you by the grace of Christ, for a different gospel; which is really not another, only there are some who are disturbing you, and want to distort the gospel of Christ. But even though we, or an angel from heaven, should preach you a gospel contrary to that which we have preached to you, let him now be accursed. As we have said before, so I say again now, if any man is preaching to you a gospel contrary to that which you received, let him be accursed. For am I now seeking the favor of men, or of God? Or am I striving to please men? If I were still trying to please men, I would not be a bond-servant of Christ. Gal 1:1-10

The Gay Christian Deception Is Gaining Momentum

In July 2014, I wrote an article titled "I Am Not a Gay Christian". At that time, those who called themselves "Gay Christians" were relatively few. Since then, their numbers have been growing as many more are deceived sufficiently enough for them to believe they can 'have their cake and eat it, too.' Meaning, I can identify as gay and still be a Christian.

I believe part of the rise in numbers of believers being deceived is due to the ongoing problem of church leadership in the Body of Christ refusing to face head-on, and minister to, those in their congregations whose lives have been impacted either directly or indirectly by LGBTQ issues. There are strugglers in their congregations who remain silent out of fear when their own pastors fail to address LGBTQ matters in a redemptive way, leaving them to believe there is no help for their struggles. They don't necessarily want to take on an LGBTQ identity, but then somewhere along the way they hear about Gay Christians, so they believe they now have permission because others are taking on that identity. So, they adopt that name.

Also, there are organizations that have sprung up within the last 15 years or so, such as Christian Fellowship fka The Gay Christian Network, FreedHearts, and Revoice among others. Their awareness has gained traction, I believe largely because of the Church's silence on the matter. I believe they are spreading a false gospel about God's design for human sexual expression. That God designed human sexual expression to be confined to a male husband and his female wife has been dismissed and swept under the rug.

Additionally, in doing research I see that there are currently 33 distinct Christian denominations which are defined as LGBTQ affirming in the USA, according to Wikipedia. And according to Ready to Harvest, a YouTube channel “all about Christian denominations,” they went to the website for gaychurch.org, which has a directory of LGBTQ affirming churches, and found the denominations having the largest numbers of LGBTQ affirming churches. The top 5 largest in order are The Episcopal Church, then the United Church of Christ, followed by The United Methodist Church, then the Evangelical Lutheran Church of America, and last is the Presbyterian Church USA. These five denominations make up over 77% of LGBTQ affirming churches in the United States. It is no wonder there are so many confused and deceived believers going their own way in the wrong direction.

Finally, and I still see this as the biggest problem with the Gay Christian label, is that, as a born-again believer, taking on an identity that God did not assign to His sons and daughters, is straying from God’s Biblical standard for human sexuality. It is disobedience against Paul’s admonitions to flee anything related to sexual immorality in 1 Corinthians 6:19,20, “Or do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit who is in you, whom you have from God, and that you are not your own? For you have been bought with a price; therefore glorify God in your body.” The only descriptor we need to know is ‘bought and paid for’. That alone must remain enough for the struggling believer to hold on to God’s truth about our sexuality and His created design for it!

Responses From You

From a sister in Australia: Wow Daniel, that bit of writing by Brandon Showalter was very powerful. As difficult to read as it was. My heart goes out to the younger ones especially, who have gone through this terrible treatment, only to find that it was a passing phase in their life. And now they are scared for life. Many have said that they now feel like outcasts. They belong neither to the world of their own biological gender, nor anymore part of the trans world. Finding the healing power of and in Christ, would give them a new life. Thank you for including this in your newsletter.

From a Louisville pastor: I really enjoy your messages. May the God of Our Lord Jesus continue to bless you and your family in keeping you safe, and peace as you continue to pray, work, and perseverance. Press toward the mark of the high calling. Love, my brother.

From a pastor in SC: Thanks for sending this article. Everyone should read it. Sounds like the world has gone crazy. True Christians should be in deep travail and intercession to break this Satanic stronghold. Blessings to you.

From a prayer partner in Louisville: Daniel, a very good article to expose the horror of this industry. It is so sad for the abuse these good reporters have endured over the past decade. The LORD give them peace beyond understanding as they stand for the truth.
