He rescued me because He delighted in me. Ps 18:19b

THIS MONTH'S MEDITATION SCRIPTURE: ...and walk in love, just as Christ also loved you, and gave Himself up for us, an offering and a sacrifice to God as a fragrant aroma. Eph 5:2

I Love You, Lord!

From the Archives: March 2021

Yesterday was a difficult day for me. I stayed up late the night before, and I awakened yesterday morning way earlier than I wanted or planned. I felt like I was in a fog the entire morning. I did my quiet time with the Lord just as I do every day after washing up, brushing my teeth and getting dressed, and I kind of slept through the whole thing although wide awake, not remembering much of anything I read or prayed.

I don't remember driving to the post office to check for ministry mail, or coming home, but I must have because there is still the lone envelope on the kitchen counter from a new donor. When it came time to pray with my wife Fran, I was pretty much checked out the entire time. Hardly any of my usual prayers were coming to my mind, and I didn't even have the presence of mind to engage in any warfare. And yet, all morning and most of the afternoon I was battling all kinds of intrusive ungodly thoughts, trying to be diligent to take each one captive to the obedience of Christ. After we were finished praying, I went back into the family room, thinking I'd go to YouTube and find some worship music.

I do the YouTube thing pretty often, so it was a familiar discipline for me as part of my daily time with the Lord. Only yesterday, it was different than most days. Almost immediately as I started listening to the music, allowing the lyrics to seep into my spirit, it seemed as though the Lord pulled me out of the fog and was refreshing my soul. The Holy Spirit was washing me as I listened to songs taken from the Scriptures.

Thanks and praise and love for the Lord welled up within me. Psalm 18:1 came to mind, "I love You, O Lord, my strength;" a declaration of David to God for his deliverance from Saul. That time alone with Him changed the course of the rest of my day and evening, as I engaged in a video chat and a counseling session later.

I am so grateful for the Lord's presence, how He cares for me, His mercy, His grace (His power in me to do His will), and the love He has for this son. I love You, Lord, because You first loved me.

From a local pastor: My brother Daniel: truly the hour is late. My prayer is that the Lord show me how to keep winning Souls to the Kingdom. Likewise to you my brother.

From a brother in TX: Hi Daniel. How are you? Always appreciate the Abba's Delight newsletter. This one was very sobering about repentance and judgment of our nation. Thanks for calling that out. I hope you are well.

From a brother in Louisville: Amen to that for sure.

On the Abba's Delight Facebook page: Amen and amen.
